1. WENG Shih-liang (翁式亮), chairman of the South China Democratic League (華南民主同盟), was a former Divisional Commander in the Kwang-tung Army. He is an old associate of General TSAI Ting-kai.
2. WENG left Shantung Province Communist Headquarters on 26 September 1946 for Shanghai where he stopped for three days before continuing his journey to Hongkong. Enroute he stopped at Swatow for two days.
3. Upon arrival at Hongkong, WENG spent the evening at the offices of the Hua Shang Pao (華商報), Communist daily. The following morning, he left for Huiyang (114-26, 23-05). He is believed to be on an inspection tour, and to be supervising the distribution of funds to various Communist organizations in South China.
